ONE HUNDRED PEOPLE KILLED

Serious Rioting Occurs in a City in Mexico.

WOMEN TAKE PART IN FIGHT

One of Them Shoots and Kills the Chief of Police of Puebla—Bomb Thrown From Window of Building Into Midst of Policemen and Rurales Kills Many of Them.

City of Mexico, Nov. 19.—One hundred persons, including the chief of police, were killed in riots at Puebla, according to statements of passengers arriving from that city.

The stories told by passengers are that the trouble began when a number of policemen, headed by the chief, attempted to break up a meeting of anti-electionists which was being held in a large hall.

As Chief of Police Miguel Cabrera and his men advanced toward the building a door was opened by a woman, who shot and killed the chief. A fight then ensued between the police and the occupants. A bomb was thrown from one of the windows in the midst of the policemen and rurales, the latter having been called to assist the officers. The bomb exploded, killing many.

The other casualties occurred in the course of fighting which took place in the street. So far as known there were no Americans killed.

The passengers further asserted that from midnight until they left Puebla in the afternoon there was continuous rioting and, while anti-electionists had been dislodged from the building, fears were entertained that the disorders were by no means at an end.

From other sources in the City of Mexico it was learned that the Seventeenth battalion left here for Puebla by special train and that other trains were in readiness to transport additional troops to the scene of the riots, if deemed necessary.

It was officially stated here that eighteen men were killed in Puebla.

Madero Head of Conspiracy.

Details of the conspiracy alleged to have been promoted against Diaz by Francisco I. Madero, now a fugitive from Mexico, and which has resulted within the last two days in the arrest of several alleged conspirators, came to light. The information indicated that Sunday, Nov. 20, was the date fixed for a general uprising against the existing government.

The conspirators appeared to have extended their operations to the states of Vera Cruz, Hidalgo, Coahuila, San Luis Potosi, Nuevo Leon, Puebla, Jalisco, Guanajuato, Yucatan and Zacatecas. To officers in these states orders have been sent to put down with vigor any disturbances.

Circulars which appear to have been sent out by Madero, or his agents, from San Antonio, Tex., to various persons in the City of Mexico, outline his campaign and announce Madero as constitutional president of Mexico.

Among other statements contained in the manifesto were the following: "I, Francisco I. Madero, will place myself at the head of a revolutionary party against the government of Mexico. Between the 20th and 30th of November, I shall lead my followers against the government of Mexico."

Of the men arrested here for complicity in the conspiracy, one, who gave his name as Casio Robelo, carried a commission from Madero, naming him as governor of Hidalgo.

A telegram from Puebla stated that the first regiment of federal troops had arrived, as had also a corps of rurales. These, under the command of Generals Luis Valle and Eduardo Canz, were led against a house in which the rebels were fortified. The federal troops attacked the house, shouting, "long live the supreme government!"

The Maderistas, as they have come to be known, kept up a hot fire from the windows and balconies for some time.

A striking feature of the fighting was the part played by women. Mrs. Jose Cerdan, who killed the chief of police, was killed by the fire of the troops. A number of other women in the house appeared on a balcony and took part in the conflict. When the place was captured several women were found among the dead and wounded.

DAKOTANS WILL LOSE JOBS

Control of Congress Means Change in Positions.

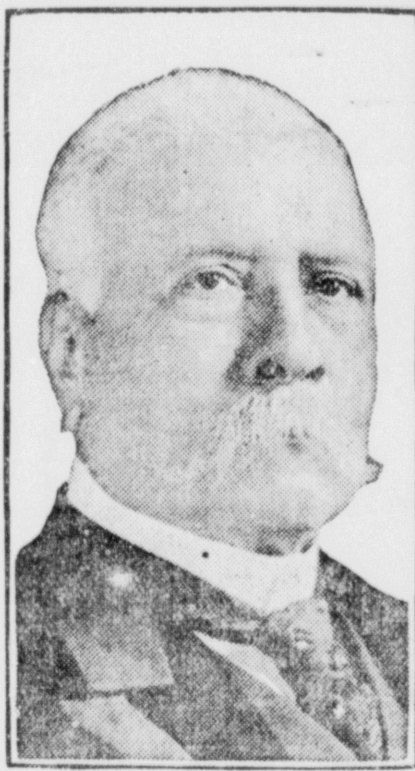

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 19.—Three, possibly more, North Dakotans will lose their jobs in Washington as a result of Democratic control of the lower branch of Congress. H. D. Fruit, formerly postmaster at Lakota, is connected with the postoffice in the house. Sherman McClory is an assistant to the clerk of the house. He is a son of Mayor McClory of Devils Lake. George Vetch of Argusville is a policeman on the capitol grounds and there are others who may lose their positions as a result of the political change.

Census Soon Ready.

Yankton, S. D., Nov. 19.—Senator Gamble has been advised by D. D. Durand, director of the census, that the result of the census in this state will be announced this week.

PRESIDENT DIAZ.

Serious Disorders Occur in the Country He Rules.

GAMBLING HOUSES CLOSED

Sensational Evidence Collected by Special Examiner Kaspar.

Deadwood, S. D., Nov. 19.—A sensation was sprung in circuit court when U. V. Kaspar of St. Paul, special examiner for the government at naturalization hearings, forced two witnesses who were saloonkeepers to admit that their places of business were open after 11 p. m., the legal hour, and that gambling was conducted in the saloon of one of them.

Both witnesses were disqualified as improper, and as a result of the disclosure gamblers at once closed their games.

Mr. Kaspar had collected his evidence against the saloonkeepers who were present as witnesses, and, in objecting to their testifying for applicants for final papers, secured the admissions in open court. Following their announced intention a month ago, the city authorities of Deadwood caused the closing of all gambling houses, and no games are running in either city.

NAGEL TALKS ABOUT FOREIGN COMMERCE

Believes in Both State and National Authority.

Kansas City, Nov. 19.—Charles Nagel, secretary of commerce and labor, was the principal speaker at the sixteenth annual John Jay dinner given by the Commercial club. "Foreign Commerce" was his subject. About 700 guests were present.

Other speakers included John M. Moss of Milwaukee, who spoke on "Business Ethics."

Active and rational co-operation between the national and state authorities is absolutely essential to a successful solution of the common problems with which they are confronted. This was the opinion expressed by Mr. Nagel in his address.

He declared himself a believer in both state and national authority, saying that he "read the Constitution to mean that the integrity of both was guaranteed."

In the practical affairs of life, however, he asserted, "substantially no one adheres to the old doctrine" of restricted power of the national government.

"The old restrictions on federal authority and federal appropriations have been swept away," he said. "Generally in all directions the old barrier has broken down and it is admitted in practice, if not in platform, that national authority is absolutely essential to meet national problems as they now present themselves. If this is true at home with respect to domestic affairs it is infinitely more true with respect to foreign affairs."

Mr. Nagel dealt with the question of the relation between national and state authority, particularly as it pertained to commerce.

BOY IS CARRIED UNDER ICE

Farm Lad Has Remarkable Escape From Death at Valley City.

Valley City, N. D., Nov. 19.—Fighting every inch of the way to save himself from drowning in the icy waters of Cheyenne river, George Preston, a farmer boy living north of here, cheated death by grasping the edge of an air hole and hanging on until his companions could get an ax and chop away ice for him to be taken out.

The boy was skating when he broke through and was whirled beneath the water. His companions could see him through the ice and followed his flight, but were unable to assist him.

For fully a block the boy drifted under the ice, while the boys above watched him with horror. Some of them ran for help, but before any men could arrive young Preston, in thrashing about with his hands, put his fingers through an air hole not more than six inches across. He had presence of mind to keep his hold and draw his face to the opening, where he could breathe. One of the boys secured a small hand ax with which the hole was made large enough for the boy to be taken out.

TO VOTE AGAINST RACE TRACK BILL

State Senator Travis Offered a Large Sum.

DOES NOT RECALL HIS NAME

Witness Says That a Mysterious Little Man Approached Him in Behalf of Former Senator Frank J. Gardner. Says Gardner Confirmed Offer in Telephone Conversation.

New York, Nov. 19.—One hundred thousand dollars to vote against the anti-race track betting bills in 1908 was offered to State Senator Eugene M. Travis of Brooklyn, so he swore on the stand, testifying before the legislative committee. A mysterious little man, whose name he does not recall, made the offer in the lobby of the senate, he said, in behalf of former Senator Frank J. Gardner. And Gardner, he added, confirmed it in a subsequent telephone conversation.

Gardner is now under indictment charged with having attempted similarly, though with a lesser amount, to influence Otto G. Foelker of Brooklyn, now a congressman but then a state senator. Foelker voted for the bill, as did Travis, and it was passed notwithstanding the frantic efforts of the race track interests and the alleged use of a fund which previous testimony has placed at $500,000.

Unable to Find Them.

Travis' testimony and the committee's efforts to subpoena James R. Keene and Harry Payne Whitney, two millionaires whose hobby is horse racing, were the most interesting developments of the hearing, resumed after an adjournment on Oct. 22. Efforts to find Messrs. Keene and Whitney have so far been without success and M. Linn Bruce, chairman of the committee, is growing impatient. Both men have been mentioned in previous testimony as having been present at a conference at Delmonico's at which the alleged corruption fund was raised and the committee is anxious to examine them.

Travis' story added two new names to the list of senators "approached." The amount offered him, he explained, was to be paid in two installments, $25,000 down and $75,000 after his vote had been cast.

"Did you ever hear of any legislator being approached?" he was asked.

"Yes; I took lunch with Senator Fuller and Senator Carpenter one day and they told me they had been approached. Senator Gates also told me he had been called on the telephone."

"Would you know the man who approached you if you saw him again?"

"Yes, I think I would."

MORE MONEY IS NEEDED

Educators Want Educational System Bettered.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 19.—At a meeting of the superintendents of public instruction of twenty or more states there will be introduced a resolution calling upon congress to apply more money for the betterment of the educational system in this country. The sentiment is that the government should take supervision of a system for standardizing all colleges, universities and normal schools from which teachers graduate and that this stand should be uniform.

This would eliminate the present necessity of a teacher taking another examination when she removes from one state to another, while the whole plan is aimed at so called colleges and universities which equip persons with certificates of competency as teachers and which are, in fact, nothing more nor less than fakes and operate merely to get the fee from the employers.

It was pointed out that the present bureau of education can do little or nothing with the present appropriation of $25,000 a year.

Uniformity in courses of study is also sought by the conference. C. G. Schulz of St. Paul represents Minnesota in the conference.

TWO BOYS ARE DROWNED

Chicago City Scene of Fatality When Boys Fall Into Lake.

Chicago City, Minn., Nov. 19.—Andrews Row and George Peterson, both aged ten, were drowned in Green lake while skating. The Row had a pair of skates and his companion had none, to get around which difficulty the lads took turns about and pushed each other along the ice. They got too near the open water in the middle of the lake, however, and went in. Peterson died without a struggle and the Row boy swam for some time, making a terrific struggle to get on top of the ice, which persisted in crumbling at his touch. The bodies were recovered two hours after drowning. The boys were the sons of Simon Row and August Peterson, well to do farmers of this community.

Railroad Rate Cases.

St. Paul, Nov. 19.—Commencing Monday morning at 10 o'clock the attention of Judge Walter H. Sanborn of the United States circuit court will be directed to the final arguments of counsel in the Minnesota railroad rate cases. The entire week, with the exception of Thanksgiving day, will be devoted to these cases, two and one-half days being allotted to each side.

SENATOR GORE.

House Committee Will Make a Report on His Charges.

© 1910, by American Press Association.

WILL BE MADE IN JANUARY

House Committee's Report on Gore's Charges.

Washington, Nov. 19.—The house committee appointed to make an inquiry into the truth of the bribery charges made by Senator Gore in connection with contracts with the five civilized tribes of Oklahoma will make a report early in January. Announcement to this effect was made by Representative Burke of South Dakota, chairman of the committee. The committee will meet here Wednesday to hear witnesses for whose appearances subpoenas have been issued. Among them will be three or four former senators, who represent the Indians in Washington as counsel. The names of these men will be withheld for the present.

Chairman Burke expects to pass the Indian appropriation bill in the house before the Christmas recess. Accordingly, it is believed that all the members of the house committee, among them Representative Miller of Duluth, will reach Washington early next week. As a rule, the Indian bill comes up for consideration late in the session.

COUNT TOLSTOY SUFFERS RELAPSE

Condition of Noted Russian Author Serious.

Astapova, Russia, Nov. 19.—After having remained unchanged through out the day, the condition of Count Leo Tolstoy took an unfavorable turn at night. Oxygen was administered to the patient, who frequently lost consciousness.

Great anxiety was expressed by those at the bedside of the stricken man, but hope has not been abandoned for his ultimate recovery.

Dr. Usoff, professor of internal diseases at Moscow university, and Dr. Tchurovsky, who treated Tolstoy for bronchitis in the Crimea in 1901, have been urgently summoned to Astapova. Tolstoy's temperature is 97.88, pulse 110 and respiration 36. He is conscious, but sleepy and weak. Still later, after a clyster, his temperature registered 98.2, and the general feeling of the patient was better.

Dr. Berkeghem says the case is not hopeless, though no means will avail to relieve the overtaxed heart through out periods of unconsciousness.

No detail of the bed chamber escapes Tolstoy. He rebuked Dr. Berkeghem for entering and not greeting him. Again, overhearing a hushed consultation regarding his hicough, Tolstoy said, "It is not painful." He demanded that some one read to him disconnected sentences he had dictated while in a semi-delirious state.

The holy synod is trying by all avenues to approach the bedside of Count Tolstoy. It ordered an aged monk named Joseph, a friend with whom Tolstoy conversed at the Optina monastery last week, to come to Astapova. Joseph's health, however, did not permit of his making the journey and therefore the abbot of Optina, accompanied by a monk, came in his stead.

They were not permitted to enter the sick room, however. Tolstoy's eldest daughter, Tatiana, was permitted to see her father for a few minutes.

Grunt-who-will Tower. Anne, the duchess in wooden shoes, who brought Brittany in the pocket of her wedding gown to her husband, the king of France, kept the government for herself, and when the bishop of St. Malo protested against the stronghold which she built to cove the too independent Maloans she carved on her tower the irreverent inscription, which may still be read there, "Grunt who will, so shall it be; 'tis my pleasure," and the tower "Grunt Who Will" (Quiqueten Grogue) it remains to this day.

"ALL EYES ON BRAINERD"

Hubbard County Waking Up
Park Rapids Clipper: "All eyes on Brainerd" and every community should be represented there on December 1st and 2nd by delegates to the next meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association. The Brainerd meeting will no doubt be more important to Northern Minnesota than either of the former meetings, as resolutions will be adopted and definite action taken in regard to proposed legislation helpful to this section of the state. The first work to come up will probably be reapportionment. Northern Minnesota is going to ask for that through this association and in no unmistakable terms, and we believe is going to get it. The dates of this meeting is only two weeks ahead. What is Hubbard county to do about being represented there?

Wisconsin Will be Represented
Superior Telegram: Superior delegates should attend the big meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association to be held in Brainerd Dec. 1 and 2—not as voting delegates, of course, but as representatives of a friendly commercial gateway directly interested in northern Minnesota development. Perhaps it would also be helpful to absorb some of the development spirit which will prevail there.

FLIES AND POTATO BUGS
Prof. Washburn, State Entomologist, Writes the Dispatch Regarding the Potato Bug Pest

Editor Dispatch: I notice in your issue of October 28th the statement that flies kill potato bugs. Your inference is that the "Lady Bird beetles" are doing this, which, of course, by the way, are not flies. I think your are mistaken as to this, for the "Lady beetles" or "lady birds" when attacking other insects, feed only on plant lice, as far as I know.

The flies killing the potato bugs, which you refer to in the above item, might have been robber flies—large, strong, two-winged insects, able to compete with a grasshopper. Or, they might have been saw-like flies, which possibly were provisioning their nests by stinging and carrying away the larval potato beetles.

I am very glad to hear that some good work is being done along this line. It would be a nice thing if they were numerous enough to take off all the potato beetles, in which case, however, there would not be as much sale for Paris Green, and the dealers might not like it.

With best wishes,
Yours truly,
E. L. WASHBURN,
State Entomologist,
Minneapolis, Nov. 15, 1910.

Former President Visits the National Capital.

Delivers an Address Before the National Geographical Society—Appears in Role of Scientist and Sportsman. Makes But a Single Comment on Political Situation—Greeted by an Enthusiastic Audience.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt returned to the national capital for the first time since his official departure from the White House in March, 1909. In the role of sportsman and scientist he came to relate before the National Geographical society his adventures in the African jungle. Fully 5,000 persons, including cabinet officers, supreme court justices and members of the diplomatic corps, crowded Convention hall and gave him an enthusiastic welcome.

Much interest was manifested whether he would make any reference to the recent political upheaval or politics in general; but, beyond the remark that "every dog has his day, but the nights belong to the cats," which he made in jest before the National Press club, where he was informally received, the colonel evaded politics.

From the moment of his arrival, when he was met at the station by his daughter, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, and delegations from the National Geographical society and the National Press club, the colonel kept up a rapid fire of superlatives that evinced the hearty enjoyment he felt at returning to scenes that recalled strenuous days of executive action.

As the colonel stepped from the train a large crowd cheered him loudly. Along the streets people lined the sidewalks and shouted a noisy welcome. The colonel waved his hat continuously.

At the National Press club there was a great gathering of newspaper men and friends.

"My friends," he began, "I am deeply touched by your kind way of greeting me and I do hope you understand how genuinely I feel it. I do not want to make any comments."

Nights Belong to the Cats.

Mr. Roosevelt joined in the laugh that followed and added: "I was thinking of one, however, that would be sufficiently inclusive. I wish to say that every dog has his day, but the nights belong to the cats."

In his lecture at Convention hall Mr. Roosevelt confined his remarks to incidents of the African trip and evoked mingled laughter and applause as he told of the habits of the natives, the encounters with wild beasts and the remarkable collection of specimens which he was glad the expedition was able to obtain.

There were present Secretary Knox, M. J. Jusserand, French ambassador; Justice Harlan and Justice McKenna and many others who had not seen Mr. Roosevelt since he left the White House.

The colonel digressed from his African hunting to mention that he was just about on the equator when news reached him of the alleged discovery of the North pole by Dr. Cook. He said he didn't believe it at the time. When he received news a few days later of the achievement of Commander Peary, he declared he was confident that the pole had been reached, and added that he was glad of the stand which the National Geographical society had taken in defending Peary.

Indirect allusion was made by the colonel to his recent strictures on the supreme court when he related an incident which he said only Mark Twain could have done justice to.

"Captain Smith, the head of the irrigation service in a North African town," he said, "had been trying to raise vegetables and flowers. One night a zebra came and his gardener killed the animal, whereat the district judge promptly fired the gardener for killing game."

The audience laughed as the colonel added: "I don't think the most sensitive soul could object to calling that judge fossilized."

Meets at Crookston.

Crookston, Minn., Nov. 19.—With Chairman Ben Clement of the Polk county commissioners presiding the annual state conference of charities and corrections was opened in the Grand Opera House with nearly 1,000 people present. Following the invocation by Rev. C. C. Warner, Mayor Allan McKinnon delivered the address of welcome, after which the principal address was delivered by P. M. Ringdahl of the state board of control.

Child Scalded to Death.
Huron, S. D., Nov. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Penno, residing on a farm on the east line of Beadle county, have gone to Illinois with the remains of their two-year-old child, whose death occurred a day or two since. While washing, Mrs. Penno placed a pan of boiling water on the floor and temporarily left the room. During her absence the child fell into the water, the scalds resulting in its death.

The St. Cloud Times boosts the coming convention as follows: "Every member of the state legislature will receive a special and pressing invitation to attend the convention of the Northern Minnesota Development Association Dec. 1-2. The association regards reappointment as one of the greatest needs of Northern Minnesota, and wants the legislators at this convention to get in touch with the situation. Should a considerable number of legislators gather in Brainerd, there will be something doing politically, and candidates for the speakership will improve the opportunity."

The following obituary notice appeared in the last issue of the Little Falls Herald: "If Gray had won, Day's great wisdom and political ability would have been conceded. Because Gray has lost, Day is anathema with some folks who apparently judge only by success. The Herald was not particularly enamored with the issue that made the important one, viewing it as only a part of the general question of regulation. The high cost of living and inadequate recompense of labor would have made the tariff issue a strong one. People in this state do not certainly differ much on that question from those in the states which were swept by the democrats on that issue. And so also the initiative and referendum would have been a great issue, the greatest of all, but requiring a thorough campaigning of education. So far as taking away certain support which the successful nominee had by adopting his position, that would have been useless. That support was pledged months before the democratic convention met. No matter what it did, the voters were gone. Post mortems are useless in this case, as in most."

FORBIDS MANUFACTURING BEER

"Pussyfoot" Johnson and Two Indian Agents are Reported to Have Been in City

An interesting phase of the liquor question regarding the manufacture of beer in the dry territory containing the breweries at Brainerd, Per-ham and Bemidji appears to have developed in the apparent clash of authority between two departments of the United States government, namely the revenue department which, it is alleged, is continuing to supply the breweries named, with stamps which certainly allow the manufacture of beer, and on the other hand of the department of the interior which,
through its agents, the redoubtable
"Pussyfoot" Johnson, is issuing various orders regarding the shipment and disposal of such beer.

The local manufacturers contend that if they are permitted to manufacture they are permitted to sell.

It is reported that Mr.
Johnson and two deputies were in Brainerd early this morning. A search of hotel registers failed to find him and no one in town seems to have seen the gentleman. It is said he passed through the city on his way to Bemidji to examine into conditions there. Otherwise the situation in Brainerd is perfectly quiet and serene.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

In a basketball game last night the Y. M. C. A. regulars defeated a picked up team by a score of 39 to 9.
The regulars outplayed their opponents the first half, securing 31 points to the other team's 2. In the second half the pick up team took a big brace and made the regulars extend themselves to hold their own.
The score ended 39 to 9 in favor of the regulars.

The Y. M. C. A. has obtained Mr.
H. A. Lyndon, general foreman of the N. P. shops to teach mechanical

John H. Ley, Publisher Brainerd Di-

HIS NEW 1910 DIRECTORY

Proves to His Own Satisfaction That His Method of Computing Population is Correct

John H. Ley's new Brainerd city directory for 1910 and 1911 made its appearance this morning. It is a handsome piece of work and the printing and binding are excellent.
Mr. Ley has furnished for many years about all the directories the city ever had and this volume, like all its predecessors, is a mine of information and a marvel of accuracy.

At the time he first commenced the compilation of this directory Mr. Ley announced that the St. Cloud and some of the twin city papers doubted the estimates he had made of the population of the various cities whose directories he produced, the papers claiming that his multiple of 2 and ½ was too high and should be much lower. Mr. Ley's method was to multiply the number of names in his directory by the multiple 2½ and the result attained was the estimated population of such a town.

At Brainerd he decided to test this method. He took an exhaustive census and double checked all his returns. He states:

"It was felt that in this census year, of all years, a criterion should be established by which to gauge future years, and the publisher boldly challenges the census as to results.
The figures obtained this year are not estimated, but secured by a complete double count of the directory system. It is not too much to claim that in every respect the directory is a more reliable and accurate index to Brainerd than even the census of the government, that mysterious something, which like Caesar, can make no errors.

"Let us compare the work of the directory compiler with that of the census enumerator. The directory compiler has last year's book to check by and if a name fails to appear this year a special messenger goes to hunt it up and see whether the party has left the city. The census enumerator works on in blissful ignorance of the many he never sees. The compiler takes every man's name twice—once at his residence and again throughout the business district to secure a check on all persons employed. The census enumerator takes a name only at the place where the party sleeps, and this single enumeration allows many errors and omissions.

"In the present count we have found the population of Brainerd to be 9,278 of which 4,092 are persons below the age of 18 years, 1,563 are married ladies and 3,713 represent the persons over 18 years, excepting the married ladies. In the count this year it shows that the multiple is not too high, for using the multiple 2 and ½ on the 3,713 names over 18 years of age would give Brainerd's population as 9,282 or a difference of four names more than the actual count."

John Schmolke, Late Democratic Candidate for the Legislature,
Gets Sarcastic in Newspaper

John Schmolke, who was a candi-

trict on the democratic ticket, writes the Little Falls Herald as follows:
"In a letter from John Schmolke, who was one of the democratic candidates for representative, he states that he is well satisfied with the vote he received, especially as he made no canvass. He also states that if he ever runs again he will provide himself with three stomachs, one for lying. This equipment with the expenditure of a large amount of money, he thinks would surely return him a winner."

SEC. MACKENZIE
VISITS BRAINERD

In the Interest of the Coming Meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development Association

PROGRAM ABOUT COMPLETED

Some Noted Men are on the List to Deliver Addresses in this City on Dec. 1st and 2nd

W. R. Mackenzie, secretary of the Northern Minnesota Development association, is in the city today from Bemidji. Mr. Mackenzie has just returned from a week in the Twin Cities where he has been rounding out the program for the December meeting of that association in this city. Many men of note are on the list, including Gov. Eberhart, who will speak on re-apportionment. The full program and other interesting details of the coming convention will be given in full in Monday's Dispatch. The entire legislative body has received personal invitations to attend and the secretary is in receipt of replies to his communications from different parts of the state accepting the same, and many from outside the state have already indicated their desire to attend as spectators. It is quite possible that the city will be called upon to entertain the largest assemblage of visitors ever congregated together for a purpose of this kind outside the big cities.

Football

The last game of the season will be played here Saturday when the Brainerd Independents line up against the Bemidji Tigers for the championship of North Central Minnesota at Brainerd.

These two teams recently played a tie game at Bemidji, neither side scoring. Bemidji comes down with an altogether different line-up, determined to do up the Brainerd boys.
The Brainerd line-up has undergone a change too, with the addition of several high school stars. The boys have been practicing faithfully every night and are in great condition.

The Brainerd boys will probably line up as follows:

"Ox" Mahood, centre; Jerry Barron, right guard; Roland Barron, left guard; Evert Swanson, right tackle; F. Little, left tackle; Bush or
Bert Kylio, quarter; Happy Alderman, right half; Harry Carlson, left half; Moxy Mahlum, full.

From tackle to tackle Brainerd will average close to 185 pounds and has a back-field that speaks for itself.
Bemidji will probably be the heavier team. The game will be called at 2:30. Turn out and see a great game.

END STOMACH TROUBLE

All Distress From Dyspepsia, Gas, Heartburn, Sourness or Indigestion Vanishes in Five Minutes

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapepsin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy stomach 5 minutes after.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula, plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will readily see why it makes indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and other distresses go in five minutes and relieves at once such miseries as belching of gas, eructations of sour, undigested food, nausea, headaches, dizziness, constipation and other stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion and dyspepsia or an out-of-order stomach with the common, every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else worse, or believe theirs is a case of nervousness, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach or cancer.

This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, gas and stomach poison, which putrefy in the digestive tract and intestines, and besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapepsin.

LET A PHYSICIAN
FIT YOUR CORSET

Latest Straight Front and Easy Well
Made Waist Adds Health,
Says Doctor

MAKE WOMEN BEAUTIFUL

Not Only Health But Beauty Results
From a Perfect Fitting
Hygienic Corset

From Chicago Tribune of Nov. 15:—
"A properly constructed corset gives the woman wearing it the most artistic figure possible for her to have.
In most cases of semi-invalidism a rightly made corset will lift its wearer to health and develop her figure to lines of beauty."

Dr. Franklin H. Martin at the Post-Graduate hospital clinic yesterday said doctors should be the ones to design corsets. He said that corsets always will be worn, but that they need only be made properly to produce a race of classically beautiful women. He commended the current "straight front" fashion.

Rigid Back; Laced in Front
These are Dr. Martin's rules for hygienic corseting:

The back of the corset must be molded rigidly.

The corset must lace up in front.
The front lacing should be planned for flexibility and ready adjustment to the wearer's figure.

Measurements for the corset should be made by a physician.

Dr. Martin said the fashionable straight front and easy, well made waist should produce healthy bodies.
"A corset is a splint," said he.
"You would not advise a patient to go to an instrument shop and pick out his own splint for a deformed limb."

"As the corset is a splint, if the figure it is placed on is the proper shape to begin with, the corset should not change the outline, but sustain it."

Advice to Thin and Fat

"A stout woman should have a corset that will distribute her flesh, reduce her hips, flatten her abdomen, and support her. A slight woman should have a corset that will prevent displacement of the stomach.
Her figure will become rounded by a proper gain in flesh if the digestive organs are not hampered by an improper corset and if a proper diet is selected for her."

"The harmful corset is the one that disproportionately narrows the waist and fails to support the body.
Such a corset will occasion serious digestive symptoms, and, if persisted in,
will produce appendicitis, serious diseases of the stomach, and finally semiinvalidism."

"On the other hand, a scientifically fitted corset is a boon to many women; without it they would never become strong, but with it they receive the necessary assistance that enables them to be transformed from unhappy apparitions and hypochondriacs without ambition to healthy women."

Text of Intestinal Disease Paper

Dr. Martin gave his lecture on corsets in the course of a surgical clinic. His subject was intestinal diseases.

"Civilized women always have worn corsets," he said, "and they always will. The subject is a most important one to the general practitioner. The present fashion is encouraging. The straight front, which depresses the abdomen, and the upright lines of the waist are good."

W. B. Nuform Corsets
Insure Beauty Figures

The woman who wants to appear at her best should begin with the selection of a W. B. Nuform Corset.
It will assure her a fashionably correct foundation for all her gowns and prove a most comfortable and satisfactory garment.

No other popular-priced corset gives the figure such smooth lines, such classic symmetry or such remarkable suppleness as the W. B. Nuform. It has just the right degree of incurve at the waist, just the requisite length over the hips to admirably realize fashion's requirements for this season.

The artful modeling of the bust and the statuesque shaping of the back are decidedly attractive features of all Nuform models.

W. B. Nuform corsets are made in numerous styles and fabrics adapted to the needs of all wearers.

LET A PHYSICIAN FIT YOUR CORSET

The points to be remembered are that a physician should order the corset, and that the adjustment should be in front and not behind. The body is solid and bony behind. That is where the rigidity should be. The front of the corset should be so adaptable that it can be laced up any day the way it feels comfortable."

From News Items

The above article was published on the first page of the Chicago Tribune of November 15th and is in no respect an advertisement. However, it so thoroughly endorses what is claimed for the Gossard Front Lace corsets, what we sell, that we have it reproduced on this page. H. F. Michael Co.

Ten deer passed through Brainerd today. Two beauties were shot by Mark Wright and H. Wright, of Hastings, near Shovel Lake in Aitkin county. The buck shot by H. Wright had 11 prongs in its antlers and weighed 227 pounds. The first shot fired at him went clean through his horns. He was rushing towards them and this shot never phased him or caused him to waver. Both brothers then fired and their shots hit him in the body and brought him down.
